BYE, BYE BERGERS

BY LES SHORROCK

HEIDELBERG might as well start getting prepared for a return to the State League next season, after the dismal exhibition it dished up on Sunday against Melbourne Croatia.

Croatia, a team that was having problems of its own a few weeks ago, especially in the scoring department, was made to look world class every time it went forward, thanks to the 'Berger defence, which crumpled like wet cardboard in the first 20 minutes of the game.

Panic set in every time Francis Awaritefe and Joe Caleta set sail for goal, backed up by a terrier-like midfield where Josip Biskic, Mark Talajic and Branko Milosevic dominated.

... but can Barnes save JUST?

MELBOURNE JUST fans, like those of George Cross and South Melbourne had little to cheer about either.

● Francis Awaritefe, whose agility caused panic in the Heidelberg defence every time he got near the ball, outleaps Phil Stubbins.

JUST's display against Marconi was woeful too, but the arrival of ex-England International Peter Barnes could make a big difference, along with the return of Ken Murphy and Ernie Tapai from suspension.

Barnes, who had arrived only the day before, showed some delightful touches

DEATH OF A SOCCER STATION

ALAS, it has finally happened... 3EA, Melbourne's only soccer station, is dropping the sport and in future will be airing only the results on Saturday and Sunday nights, courtesy of the Italian hour.

In a letter just received, 3EA station manager Peter Horton tells us that management has decided to undertake a complete review of sporting programmes and, to allow the review to go ahead, it has been decided to terminate the Monday morning and Friday evening programmes as from April 28.

It wouldn't be fair to let this moment pass without paying a tribute to the work that Jose Montes has done on behalf of soccer in Melbourne.

I first met Jose in 1975 when I was chairman of the District League and after he had lured me to the old Fitzroy Cricket Ground to kick off a game that involved the only South American-orientated club in the League, Hotham United, he got me involved in broadcasting and we worked together for the next 11 years.

Argentinian-born Montes came here via North America, and with his background in broadcasting and his love of soccer, allied to fluent Portuguese and Spanish, he was a natural for 3EA.

But the idiotic constraints of a bureaucracy obsessed with multiculturalism have gradually whittled down the soccer content of the station's format and now it has almost eliminated soccer altogether.

Now Montes has gone to another station, Radio Italia, and the game is the poorer.

BIG-HEARTED BOX HILL

In case you weren't aware of the fact, Box Hill Soccer Club is somewhat strapped for cash, and as a consequence its players are the lowest-paid in the State League.

This week they will be receiving nothing for their efforts, simply because they have donated their wages to the Liverpool Disaster Fund.

It's a praiseworthy effort and I hope to hear that the better-paid players of other Victorian clubs have followed their example.

Channel Nine has been publicising the Australian address of the fund, which has the support of Craig Johnston.

PICKING UP THE BITS

Australia's World Cup qualification bid is over, what happens next?

How best can we pick up the bits and start to rebuild, not just the national team, but the code as a whole?

I asked that question because in my view, the game is in a shambles. The National League, supposedly the flagship of the code, staggers along from season to season, ineptly led and badly administered, wit most of its clubs in such a sorry financial plight that if they were being conducted as Corporate Affairs requires businesses to be, they would be wound up.

The League itself only survives by the generosity of sponsors, first Philips, then the brewer West End, and now the combined Health Foundations. The League is lucky that its latest sponsor, which has arrived at the eleventh hour, like all quangos has money to burn and no shareholders to hold it accountable, where as the other sponsors, like Philips, West End, Beach Fashions, Nanda and the others, became disillusioned by the cavalier treatment they received from our hierarchy and pulled out.

You might well be asking, if all the clubs are broke, despite the massive sponsorship that has been poured into the League, where has the money gone?

In February of last year, the then Chairman of the VSF, Jack Reilly, in a front-page article in this newspaper described the NSL as a $80 million disaster.

The article caused a furore, there was uproar in the VIP room at Olympic Park as the Buffalo Cup final was being played, including an angry face-to-face confrontation between Reilly and NSL chairman Sam Papasavas, but despite the heat generated, noone ever effectively refuted the allegation and nothing has changed.

After 13 years the League is still trying to get its act together, with its fixture lists a matter of guesswork and ad hoc arrangements the order of the day, and thanks to its appalling relationship with the media, its fans completely in the dark as to when and where the games are to be played.

Most sports are only too happy to spend some of their sponsorship money on advertising, this League doesn't spend a cent, it seemingly expects free publicity and free advertising.

Its office in Clarence Street dishes out ill-spelt, often ungrammatical, so-called media releases couched in glowing terms which usually arrive too late to be used, in some cases as late as the day before the fixtures are to be played.

Contrast that with the slick efficiency of basketball.

In a mere 10 years basketball has grown from a fragmented sport with dozens of local competitions into the highly-organised NBL with a national sponsor and nation-wide coverage.

Last Thursday's Australian devoted three full pages, supported by massive advertising of course, to the opening of the 1989 Hungry Jack's NBL season.

The NSL is in its 13th season, with its chairman bleating about "getting rid of the hiccups by next year"!

The NBL got it right from Year One.

AN OVERALL PLAN IS DESPERATELY NEEDED

The present situation in Australian soccer is a classic example of the right hand not knowing what the left hand is doing.

Just consider for a moment, the coaching set-up for the various national squads.

We have an U/16 squad, selected and coached by Vic Dalglish, an U/19 squad, selected and coached by Les Scheinflug, an U/23 squad (the Olympic squad), which was selected and coached by Frank Arok, and the national squad itself, also selected and coached by Arok.

In most soccer countries, you would find the U/23 squad being coached by the senior coach's assistant, and the U/19 squad being coached by the U/23 assistant coach, and so on down the line, so that there is continuity and communication between the four squads.

That way, promising boys in the U/16 squad would eventually graduate through the ranks to the national squad, if they were good enough.

But that isn't our way. Through the political manoeuvering that is the curse of the code here, Arok gained the national coaching job ahead of Scheinflug and after Gutendorf was sacked for failing in the 1982 World Cup bid, and as far as I know, the two don't communicate.

So Scheinflug picks his Youth team and goes his way, and Arok used Eddie Thomson as his assistant until the Olympics were over.

Thomson quit after the Olympics, but Arok didn't turn to Scheinflug even then.

He fell back on John Margarites and also drafted in Gary Cole from the AIS. Cole is assistant to Ron Smith, the AIS' head soccer coach, but in Canberra he is far removed from the NSL scene in Sydney or Melbourne.

I understand that the ASF executive has now come round to the belief that we should have a full-time national coach.

If that is the case, surely, it is time they backed that up with a co-ordinated scheme that takes in the coaches of all the national squads.

That way we might just possibly pick the best team available, not one that comes from a few chosen clubs, and we might remove such anomalies as the way that a player like John Markovski can be consistently overlooked.

Most good judges agree that Markovski is teh best player of his age in the country, and he plays in the Youth team and stars, but for some reason, he never gets included in the national squad.

WILL AROK REMAIN?

The ASF Annual General Meeting comes up on May 5, and when the executive meets the following day, no doubt the position of national coach will be discussed at length.

Arok has a contract as national coach that expires on July 31 1990, and ASF president Ian Brusasco has already come out in his support, the day after the Israel game saying Arok would remain coach as long as he was president.

But Brusasco has no vote on the executive, only a casting vote in the event of a tie.

One aspect of Arok's position that the executive must ponder deeply is whether he can continue to wear so many hats, if the national coach is to be full-time.

He is the St George coach and manager and a director and share-holder of that club to boot . . . doesn't that imply conflict of interest?

An ex-bournalist himself, flamboyant Frank is a great manipulator of the media, and those non-soccer journalists, who are ever-ready to jump on the bandwagon when it seems the Socceroos are poised to win something, adore him.

He has recently acquired a staunch advocate in the Australian's Jeff Wells, whom a reader described recently as the Clown Prince of sports journalism.

Having watched a couple of Socceroo matches and interviewed Arok, Wells now seems to think that Arok is the greatest thing since sliced bread and last week he devoted a column to advocating his retention.

Some idea of the depth of Wells' knowledge about soccer can be gained from his statement in the same article that "in England he (a losing coach) would be lucky to make it to the airport."

England's national team has endured quite a number of losing managers but I don't ever remember one being lynched by the mob, do you?

With the Socceroos out of the running now, Mr Wells will have turned his attention to other sports, and I hope it stays that way.

I have to admit that Arok has never been my favourite person, I think his nick-name "Frank Arrogant" fits him exactly, and I think his capers on the bench ill-befit a national coach.

And he succeeded in making me cringe when he rushed on the field with his cohorts in an attempt to harangue the referee at the end of the Israel match.

What sort of behaviour is that for a national coach to display on world-wide TV?

If the coach of some black African nation and his entourage rushed at the referee at the end of a World Cup tie to dispute a decision, we would all be saying, "well, what else would you expect, they're oly partly civilised after all", yet Arok does it and without any sort of reprimand.

Could you imagine another national coach, say Franz Beckenbauer, doing that?

DO WE BELONG IN THE WORLD CUP?

It might sound iconoclastic but, really, do we have to take part in the World Cup?

We have spent the last 16 years fruitlessly chasing a rainbow and looking for that pot of gold that world body FIFA seems determined to deny us.

What good has it done us overall, and can we afford it?

This year, everything was geared towards attempting to qualify.

The NSL started unseasonably early, clubs had to sacrifice their players and now the fixtures are in chaos as the clubs start to catch up.

Some clubs have to play as many as six games in 30 days, and we are talking about part-timers, remember.

FIFA is good at thinking up new competitions, maybe it is time it thought up some sort of Second Division World Cup that would better suit we countries which comprise soccer's Third World.

Come to think of it, it could be called the Third World Cup. We would stand a chance of faring better against say Cyprus, Malta, Angola, Sudan, Gabon, Ivory Coast, Liberia, Zaire, Costa Rica and Trinidad?Tobago, or would we?

THE OFFSIDE CLUB IS FLOURISHING

The Offside Club had a successful lunch last week, and welcomed several new members, but there is still room for more people who enjoy the fellowship of soccer.

Joe Docherty turned up straight out of hospital and as chipper as ever, extolling the prospects of his club Brighton, which is getting floodlights soon.

He was also quick to remind fellow-member Brian Garvey that whilst Paul Trimboli is now the apple of South Melbourne's eye, he is a product of Brighton Juniors.

Gary McDowall's return has been delayed for another two weeks, and Ron Campbell has also suffered another set-back.

By the time they come back it could well be too late.

Jeff Olver, who was not allowed to play against Croatia under the terms of his transfer, will be in goal this week, but then Michael Chatzitrifonos who played in goal on Sunday, could hardly be blamed for the loss.

Paul McDowall, brother of Gary, arrived last Saturday and will no doubt be rushed into the side for the game against Apia next Saturday.

MARCONI MATCHES UP JUST

Marconi continued its relentless march towards a second successive championship by shutting out Melbourne JUST 4-0 at Schintler Reserve.

MAN OF THE MATCH:
● PAUL CARTER

Marconi benefitted from the shaky goalkeeping of Mauro Raponi and was rarely threatened by JUST's debutant Peter Barnes.

Barnes, 31, who played 22 times for England, was supposed to solve JUST's goalscoring problems but spent most of the game on the wing until he ran out of puff and was replaced by Vasko Mitrovski in the 68th minute.

but Barnes played stylishly in the first half and should prove a valuable addition to the side.

Marconi took the lead early, scoring in the second minute when Raponi failed to hold a shot from Ian Gray, enabling Vince Colagiuri to shoot from close range.

In the 13th minute, Raponi was way off his line and back-pedalled in vain as a 20m lob by Paul Carter dropped into the goal behind him.

JUST started controlling play, with Oscar Crino calling the shots from mid-field.

Marconi goalkeeper Bob Catlin made a desperate one-handed clearance to prevent Crino from scoring in the 28th minute and Crino also missed narrowly with a powerful shot just before half time.

For a while, JUST's skilful individuals played keepings-off against Marconi but eventually they ran out of steam and were caught by a breakaway that resulted in the third goal.

Colagiuri sped down the left and cut the ball back for Grey who had time to control it and drive a low shot past Raponi.

In the last minute, Tommy McCulloch raced clear from the half line unchallenged, andwent around Raponi for the fourth goal.

BERGERS SINK DEEPER IN MIRE

Heidelberg sank deeper in relegation danger after getting a 4-0 thrashing by Melbourne Croatia in the game at Olympic Village.

MAN OF THE MATCH:
● JOE CALETA

The club was already stranded at the bottom and needed to start picking up points but Melbourne Croatia had other ideas and took only four minutes to hit the lead.

It then virtually wrapped up the match with a second goal after 16 minutes.

The two quick goals zapped any confidence Heidelberg had before that match and it took 60 minutes of play before it tested young Melbourne Croatia keeper Joe Rados.

Rados, a teenager, was plunged into the team after Melbourne Croatia sold Socceroo keeper Jeff Olver to Heidelberg for $25,000 mid-week.

The transfer agreement prevented Olver from playing against his old club and he could only watch helpless from the terraces as the 'Bergers took a severe belting.

A corner from Joe Biskic led to the opening goal in the fourth minute. Branko Milosevic collected the short kick and Joe Caleta got up to head home the resultant cross.

Heidelberg fullback John Kanesoulis blocked a shot by Frances Awaritefe on the line before Melbourne Croatia added to the score in the 16th minute when Zeljo Adzic ran onto a through pass from Caleta to hit his shot past keeper Mike Chatzitrifonos from the edge of the box.

The Heidelberg keeper tipped a Biskic free kick over the bar before half-time as Melbourne Croatia increased the pressure.

Nine-minutes into the second-half the keeper was exposed again. Caleta provided the cross for Milosevic and although Chatzitrifonos got a hand to it he could not stop the ball from going over the line.

Rados had been largely inactive for most of the match but finally got a touch of the ball from a weak shot by Phil Stubbins in the 75th minute.

MAN OF THE MATCH:
● JOE CALETA

It was busier at the other end with Chatzitrifonos making a brave save at Awaritefe's feet before getting beaten a fourth time four minutes from the end. The keeper parried a header from Adzic but Awaritefe swooped to plant the rebound home to round off the scoring.

Sydney Croatia loses goalie but still wins

Sydney Croatia survived the loss of injured goalkeeper Tony Franken six minutes into the second half to come away with a 2-1 clear win over South Melbourne at the Croatian Sports Centre.

Franken sprained his knee ligaments and could be facing a long spell off-field.

His replacement, striker Graham Arnold, was cheered every time he gained possession but admitted there was no chance of retaining the position.

South Melbourne coach Brian Garvey was bitterly disappointed by his team's reluctance to shoot when facing a substitute keeper.

"Arnie didn't even need to use his hands," Garvey said.

South Melbourne midfielder Paul Wade, who was stretchered off late in the first half and taken to Fairfield Hospital with a chipped ankle bone, barrelled Arnold in South Melbourne's penalty area in the 15th minute when the Socceroo striker was endeavoring to tee up a close in shot.

Referee Bill Monteverde awarded a penalty and Alan Hunter's left boot did the rest for a 1-0 Croatia lead.

Twelve minutes after the break South Melbourne was on level terms when Croatia skipper Vedran Rozic turned the ball into his own net.

South Melbourne striker Harry Micheil started the move along the left, with Rozic accidentally tipping the ball between a surprised Arnold and the near post.

The stage was set for the visitors to exploit Arnold's inexperience in goal, but despite having plenty of ball supply, it was Croatia's dangerous counter attacks that decided the outcome.

In the 72nd minute Hunter grazed the crossbar, and four minutes later overlapping defender Shane Clinch's header fully tested goalkeeper Bruce MacLaren after Robbie Slater had opened up the defence with a low cross.

MAN OF THE MATCH:
● MANIS LAMOND

In the 77th minute Croatia midfielder Ante Rumora's through pass was met by the speedy Manis Lamond, who angled his drive into goal for 2-1.

The two goals took Sydney Croatia's tally to a modest nine from 11 games, but the spark of action from Lamond could indicate that better days are coming.

The attedance of 1753 indicated thumbs down from the home supporters on scheduling Saturday fixtures to suit television requirements.

before jet-lag overtook him and he was substituted.

South Melbourne not only lost to a Sydney Croatia deprived of its goalkeeper for half the game, but has lost the services of Paul; Wade for the rest of the season.

Wade broke his leg after an accidental clash with Croatia's Ante Rumora and will miss the rest of the season.

Coming on top of the pelvic strain that he only just overcame, the latest calamity ensures that 1989 is a year that Wade will want to forget in a hurry.

Sunshine George slipped a little nearer to the abyss as it was beaten by Preston Makedonia, despite playing in an ultra-defensive mode.

State League

CAULFIELD CITY 3
ALTONA GATE 1

Caulfield City defeated Altona Gate 3-1 at Princes Park last Saturday to end Altona's five-match unbeaten run, while pushing itself into the top four.

The game was entertaining, with both teams involved in an open yet fierce encounter.

After only nine minutes Caulfield scored a simple goal which placed it on the road to victory.

A free-kick was quickly taken by John Bitsonis to Kenny Drakeford, who crossed from the right and found the unmarked Nick Deligiannis at the far post.

Deligiannis with the easiest of chances tapped the ball into the net from only a few yards out.

In the 69th minute Caulfield stretched its lead to 2-0.

Man-of-the-match Drakeford, won the ball in the Altona half and streaked in-between two defenders, then chipped the ball over the advancing Altona 'keeper, Stuart Lee.

The loose ball was followed home by Con Pappas who made no mistake in pushing the ball over the line, whilst fending off a defender.

Altona, undeterred by the scoreline continued to mount pressure on the home side and were awarded with a penalty 12 minutes from time. Pappas was penalised for handling the ball and referee, John Fraser, found himself surrounded by protesting Caulfield players — particularly Pappas.

But, the decision stood and substitute Mendo Ristovski blasted his spot-kick to Robert Madjer's right.

Madjer managed to dive in the correct direction and get a hand to the ball, but the sheer power of the kick proved too much for Madjer to hold.

With a minute to go, Pappas had the last laugh when he planted the ball into the bottom left-hand corner of the net.

CROYDON CITY 3
RINGWOOD CITY 0

The local derby between Croydon City and Ringwood City ended in a convincing and well-deserved victory for Croydon.

Croydon played fast, attacking soccer, creating opportunities to score and carrying it through.

Ringwood was dangerous only in the first half hour when it dominated play and was denied a goal in the 2nd minute by Croydon goalie Mirko Runje from a John Corvan free-kick.

Ringwood had some good chances but the Croydon defence stood firm. When the men in orange slowed down after 25 minutes, Croydon took over the initiative and, in the 42nd minute, Roodhouse showed the way to victory, scoring with a hard and low drive from 15 metres.

Nothing much changed in the second half. Croydon never allowed Ringwood to come back in the game. Ringwood never had the power for a dangerous counter-attack and was certainly missing the services of Paul May and Michael Maguire.

Twelve minutes into the second half Scott scored the second goal for Croydon from a scrimmage in the Ringwood penalty area, which was also the nail in the Ringwood coffin.

In the 31st minute G Runje substituted Roodhouse and his first action was a bullet-like shot which goalie Colin Blackley only could deflect to the feet of the incoming Andy Humble.

BU JUVENTUS 2
MORWELL FALCONS 0

Brunswick Juventus took advantage of Morwell's reshuffled defence, caused by injuries to Harry Bingham and Roy Walsh, and tore it apart to score twice in the first half.

Juventus attacked from the start and it was only a matter of time before the onslaught would find the target. Steve Glockner latched onto a ball from the wing to find the net after 25 minutes and Charlie Egan followed up 15 minutes later to slam home another cross from almost the same place.

Morwell made a couple of moves at the break and was able to contain Juventus in the second half but the damage had been done and, despite some spirited forward play from Jeff Doyle who fed the forward line well, the La Trobe Valley side was unable to find the net.

Billy Wright had returned from his New Zealand commitments but togehter with Greg Warszawski and Darko Basara, never looked dangerous.

Jim Nelson, back from suspension, made a deal of difference in Falcons' midfield, but the reshuffle of players took the shine out of the side.

WAVERLEY CITY 2
CLIFTON HILL 1

Waverley: D. Bradley, P. Strahan, A. Nelson, C. Tsapatolis, A. Perree, P. Storey, T. Grimwade, A. Wilson, G. Radcliffe, M. Budd, S. Rusmir, C. Whyte, R. Parkin, C. Pavlou.

Clifton Hill: J. Kvrgios, H. Staikouros, E. Kastoris, J. Tsaboukos, M. Lorenzi, E. Livanopoulos, A. Fakox, T. Tsirhrintzis, G. Skliros, N. Patsakos, M. Chomaniuk, T. Timotheou, P. Siskos, J. Vasilou.

In a game where both goalkeepers excelled it took a excellent goal to divide these two teams.

The first real chance of the match came when Paul Storey, playing in a more front-running role, shrugged off the attention of two Clifton Hill defenders only to see Kvrgios make a fine save.

Then it was his opposite number Bradley's turn when he turned a shot from Patsakos around the post in the 37th minute, but one minute later, Clifton Hill was to go ahead when, in a goal-mouth melee, Chomaniuk, latched onto the ball and drove it through a wall of players to put the visitors one up.

Their joy was short lived as 30 seconds later Waverley was on level terms. From the kick off the ball was laid out to full back Strahan who crossed the bal which fell to Paul Storey and his chip completely deceived Kvrgios, who could only stand and watch it go over his head into the net.

Right on half time Waverley could have gone ahead when a great cross from Rusmir was hit onto the crossbar by Radcliffe.

The second half was a see-saw affair with both teams looking for the winner. Kvrgios made to excellent saves to keep Clifton Hill on level terms and Bradley was also having a very good game.

From a corner by Grimwade, Perree headed just by the post and the same player also crossed a ball from the right and Radcliffe cleverly headed it across the goalmouth and Michael Budd was within inches of putting the ball into the net.

With the Clifton Hill coach coming off his bench to take up a position behind the goal and checking his watch every few minutes it looked like he had settled for a draw but Waverley's Terry Grimwade had other ideas and five minutes from time he received a pass and from 25 metres out hit a scorcher that even the agile Kvrgios could not get to to put Waverley in the lead.

It was a case of Waverley not doing anything silly for the last few minutes but it did give Clifton Hill one more chance by giving a free kick away inside its own half.

But it was to no avail and Waverley kept its unbeaten record of two wins and two draws.

ERIC RICHARDSON

GEELONG'S Soccer teams have made their best start to a season for many years, with North Geelong leading Division Two of the Victorian League from Geelong, Bell Park on top of Division Three and Hamlyn Rangers ahead in Division Four.

Corio-Geelung United, unbeaten and yet to concede a goal, is fourth in Division Three.

North Geelong and Geelong had 1-0 victories last weekend. Sveto Rastocic got his second goal for North since joining from St Albans with a beautifully-judged header from an Ivan Skoko's cross about a minute before half-time in the match against Yarraville. North created chances in the second half but could not add to the score.

Darren Tuck was on target once again for Geelong as it defeated Doncaster Rovers at Stead Park. Half way through the second half, a throw-in was flicked on by Liam McCloskey, who has just returned from a stine with Coleraine in Ireland. Tuck met it at the far post to score.

Geelong hit the woodwork several times in a fruitless search for further goals.

Batesford was the place to be for goals, as Bell Park rang up six without reply by Moorabbin City. City came to Geelong with a reputation for tight, committed soccer and up to half-time the record seemed intact. Lino Mazza's long cross was nodded home by George Watters following a blind-side run, which left keeper Perry Mur stranded on his side.

The second half saw Watters make it two with another low header from Mick Oppermann's cut back. Then Tommy Cumming completed a hat-trick, with a penalty goal by Sam McNeilage breaking the sequence. Cumming's best goal was his first as Steve Scerri broke from deep and drew the defence leaving Cumming unattended in the centre of the goal.

Paul den Ouden put Corio-Geelong United on its way against Altona City at Kim Reserve, as he cut in from the wing before slipping the ball past the keeper. Dominic Impiombata secured the points with a 16 metre shot into the top corner. Paul Reardon dominated proceedings for the Geelong team and Peter Smith did very well before being substituted.

Hamlyn Rangers travelled to Williamstown to record a 4-1 win. Joe Tutone repaid some more of his transfer fee from Bell Park with two goals, one of which seemed to enter the net in slow motion as the keeper stretched for it. Ray Fridey's goal was a good one and Darren Nelson made it four.

In the Provisional League, Division Two Brintons fought back from 2-0 down against Lalor to finish at 2-2. Audre Prutey curled a free kick round the wall then David Brough came off the bench to score with a header.

Once again East Geelong went down in Division One at home to Oakleigh Subrubs. Each lost its keeper for dissent after only 15 minutes, when it was already one down. Michael Smith came on as reserve keeper, with Done Laovski leaving the mid-field to make way for him. The depleted East did fight back and Tony Bozinovski hit the woodwork, but that was as close as his team could come to scoring.

ELTHAM-DIAMOND VALLEY 1 LALOR 3

Eltham-Diamond Valley: Briggs (63rd) Lalor: Filipovski (5th), Georgevski (6th), Hibic (87th).

Eltham-Diamond Valley: Hamilton, Ferla, Giacomi, Kerr, Love, Atkins, Stanaway, Tucker, (Ritter 60m), Coyle, Briggs, Petrucelli. Lalor: Kociski, Talevski, Gorgieski, Anastasovski, Ogneski, Micallef, Filipovski, Georgevski (Sokolevski 81m), Hibic, Stoikos, Necovski.

This game was won and lost in the first six minutes.

In that period, Lalor carved up the Valley defence and scored twice through Filipovski and Georgevski.

Lalor continued the attack with wingers Filipovski and Necovski causing all sorts of problems for the home-side.

Valley persisted in playing long balls out from the back to Briggs and Coyle but they were usually out numbered by the Lalor defence.

They did settle down a bit but created few chances and went in to the interval still two goals down.

Valley lifted their game in the second half and it was Lalor's turn to be under pressure.

A beautiful cross-field from Petrucelli, found Chris Briggs who ousped the Lalor defence to pull one goal back in the 63rd minute.

Despite their pressure Valley could not get the equaliser and the game degenerated with many off-the-ball incidents which went unnoticed by the referee.

Lalor sealed the game when Hibic broke away and scored its third goal three minutes from time.

Valley stormed through the centre and scored. While this was happening two players were having a wrestle on the half-way line. The referee signalled the goal, then separated the wrestlers and cautioned them. To everyone's amazement, he disallowed the goal and gave a dropped ball on the Lalor 6 yd. line. This made no difference to the result, but what if it had?

Provisional League Division Two

FOREST HILL 2 (Demir-70m., Crivelli-77m). SOUTH DANDENONG 2 (Yildirim-34min, J. Elmazovski 46min.)

Forest Hill: G. Clarke, A. McMurtrie, A. Kristilidis, F. Di Sario, D. Ergnini, N. Crivelli, R. Van Duppen, A. Masoni, S. Hall, S. D'Andrea, O. Demir, R. Aurisano (Mylonas-52min.)

South Dandenong: R. Memishi, R. Lumani, A. Dogan, S. Fus (C. Yilmaz-45min.), M. Jusic, J. Elmazovski, E. Simsek, K. Craven, S. Vahid, S. Yildirim, H. Sepetci.

Forest Hill and South Dandenong provided an entertaining "edge of the seat" 90 minutes of contrasting styles.

Forest Hill's long-ball power play was matched by the more studied approach of South Dandenong. Although the home side pressured South in the early stages it was the visitors who had the first chance to get on the scoreboard.

Following a scrimmage in the home goalmouth, a Kristilidis hand ball gave South a penalty.

Jusic's 23rd minute spot kick hit Clarke's leg and rebounded clear. Eleven minutes later Dandenong went one up. Fine play by Sepetci on the left wing ahd his cross was headed home by Yildirim. One minute after the break a stunned Forest Hill players found themselves two goals in arrears. Jim Elmazovski collected a Jusic pass down the middle.

His 20 metre dropping shot completely deceived Clarke finding the net just under the crossbar. There were near things at both ends but South's Memishi, inparticular, was in fine form.

The visitors should have made it three but Yildirim lost his way with only Clarke to beat. But Forest Hill always looked capable of scoring. This they did when Demir headed in from a Masoni cross.

Seven minutes later the home side were on level terms. Kristilidis put the ball into a crowded goal-mouth and Crivelli was on hand to push the ball over the line. Late pressure by Forest Hill had the South defence fully stretched.

Dandenong could have won the game in the dying minutes but Yildirim shot too soon and too high with only Clarke in his way. In all, a very good game and a fair result.

CELEBRITY MATCH "Politicians" 2 Northcote 89ers 1. Saturday's social game saw a number of left-wing poltiicians playing on the right, especially Theo Theophanous (MLA) who played right back.

The clown from the politicians' team was sent off for playing rugby, instead of soccer.

The Northcote womens' team is currently assessing its shock loss. The Politicians' win could only be attributed to their having the wind on their side.

ANSETT AIRLINES OF AUSTRALIA
VIC. LIC. NO. 30170

BRUNSWICK Juventus continued to show the opposition a clean pair of heels pushing Morwell Falcons out of the four as the goals flowed in abundance in the perfect Autumn weather.

Bulleen, Caulfield, Northcote City and Croydon City all helped themselves to a three apiece in a round that yielded no fewer than 22 goals.

CROYDON IMPRESSIVE

Croydon City was particularly impressive, with Ian Humble and Co. cracking that hard Ringwood defence wide open for a 3-0 win.

That win in the Eastside derby hoisted Croydon into second spot and Ian Dobson's outfit is beginning to look the main danger to Juventus in the title race.

Croydon recruited well without spending big money this year, picking p Ansett Award winner Alan Roodhouse and Steve Brimmer from Box Hill.

Roodhouse won his award as a full-back, but he is now blossoming as a midfielder and with Brimmer, long-time Croydon servant Mark Brown, and young Nick van Egmond all slotting in well, Croydon possesses a match-winning engine — room.

Croydon officials tell me they are very pleased with van Egmond's improvement this year under Ian Dobson's coaching and Dobson himself . . . a man not given to extravagant praise . . . concedes that van Egmond is playing consistently well.

ALTONA GATE FACES TOUGH TEST

Altona Gate faces a tough test of character on Saturday as it comes up against a Croydon brimming with confidence.

'Gate had been going along nicely since its opening round defeat at Morwell, but the wheels fell off at Caulfield last week, and this Saturday it faces Croydon, with the daunting prospect of opposing Juventus at Olympic Park the following week.

The question is, can Bill Murray rally his men and put last week behind him?

Croydon has conceded a miserly four goals in eight weeks, a figure that speaks volumes for the centre-back partnership of Ian Dobson and Dave McIntosh.

The battle between big Mac and 'Gate's lively striker Gary McMullen should be the highlight of this game, and it could be the clash that decides the match.

DRAKEFORD SETTING CAULFIELD ALIGHT

They are saying down Caulfield way that Kenny Drakeford is the best thing that's happened to the club since it achieved State League status.

The chirpy Potter is burning . . . just look at the Ansett award votes . . . and the rest of the team is responding.

Goalkeeper Robert Madjer has recovered form, Caesar Fattore isn't missing his Rothmans Medal partner Paul Harris one bit, and John Bitsonis has rediscovered his zest for the game.

Whilst Aki Alagozides and Angie Goutzioulis are languishing at Heidelberg and wondering what a win bonus looks like erstwhile team-mates Con Pappas and Nick Deligiannis are enjoyong themselves hugely.

SPRINGVALE IN DESPERATE STRAITS

Is there any light at the end of the tunnel for Springvale City?

'Vale has now gone eight games without a win, and scored only two goals, remarkably enough both in one game.

Nothing succeeds like success, they say, and conversely there is nothing more depressing than failing to win week after week.

Springvale faces a tough test against Northcote City on Sunday and somehow Gus Macleod has to lift his men before it is too late.

The one bright spot at Ross Reserve is the form of young Robert Brian in goal.

Brian has taken a long time and a few clubs to come to terms with the job, but if he follows in the footsteps of Peter Shilton or Dino Zoff he can look forward to playing for another 20 years!

St Albans coach Branko Culina wasn't too impressed with Springvale's performance against this team last week, but he praised Brian highly.

"He made two excellent saves in the first

HIGHPOINT KNOCKS MIDDLE OUT OF PARKERS

HIGHPOINT tore into reigning Division One Morning champion, Middle Park, from the word go, and had posted two goals before two minutes were up. From then on it was a case of "watch my dust" as Highpoint piled on relentless pressure throughout the first half. With four goals to Peter Milkovic and singles to Zelko Loncar, Steve Grgic, Ivan Marusic and Tom Kurbasa, Highpoint went to the break with an astounding 8-0 advantage.

The clash was a little more even in the second half, with Highpoint tending to ease up and Middle Park lifting to avoid complete humiliation. In fact, it was Middle Park which scored the only goal of the second period, when Alan Monahan evaded his tight marking opposite number to ram home a very pretty goal.

Highpoint is on a high, and will take a lot of confidence into its fourth-round encounter with Footscray United, a game which could see oen or the other clear leader in Division 1 Morning.

Meanwhile, Altona Ilinden lost the opportunity of maintaining its share of top honors when it dropped a point to ANZ Bank in a scorless away fixture.

Windsor maintained its dominance of Division One Afternoon with a convincing 3-1 win over Melbourne Rumania. Equal on points with Windsor are Glenroy Doxa and Hampton Park.

Doxa was quite ruthless in dumping Rowville United to bottom spot in a game that was never as even as the 3-2 scoreline might suggest.

Hampton Park also retained its perfect record, but had to come from behind late in the second half to down a very determined Coomoora Spiders 3-2. It was an important away win for the Parkers, as they now have the chance to take the leadership away from Windsor in their fourth-Round clash.

Another team to come from behind in this division was Thomastown United, which at one point trailed Youth United 3-0. The final match of this division was a blinder between Flamingo and Springvale Eagles. The Eagles took the lead in the first half with a scrambled goal by Reyes. Flamingo drew level in the 70th minute when Dantas had the better of a goal mouth melee.

OUR reporter at this game said the best feature of this match was that it was "a happy game", with both players and spectators enjoying the sun and some excellent football in a very happy frame of mind.

The game was played at a cracking pace. Both defences were in fine fettle. Flamingo attacked non-stop from the 70th minute, but were forced to take any scoring chances from long range positions.

Tottenham continues to dominate Division 2M. For them it's a case of "you set them up, we'll knock them over."

At the weekend it was the turn of a luckless SB Spurs to feel the might of the Tottenham juggernaut, going down 9-1.

Tottenham has picked up a +18 goal difference in its three encounters, but must be starting to cast a nervous backward glance at Harambee, which is improving all the time. This All-Africa combination has been little less impressive than Tottenham, and its 5-2 win in this round, over previously unbeaten Middle East, left nothing to be desired.

Cretan Athletic has got back into stride after a disastrous start, and is now looming as a potential challenger to the two front-runners. Probably the disappointment of this division so far is Melbourne Pumas.

Much was expected of this Argentinian combination, but it has so far failed to get its act together.

The surprise packet of Division 2A continues to be Flemington Floridia. While the Sicilians performed very well in wining formed very well in winning Fourth Division last year, it was against basically weak competition, and most of the experts felt that the jump to Division Two would be beyond them.

But not so.

The Floridians have so far beaten all comers, and this round's 6-1 anihilation of the highly-skilled Northern Timorese was no exception.

Flemington Floridia may not be as fast as some of its competition, it may not have the ball skills of others, but what it does have is a lot of determination.

All its players hound and harry and hustle their opponents for every minute of the game. United Kingdom recruit Smedley Altenor has made the Floridia mid-field his own and is a driving force in both defensive and attacking moves.

BAYSIDE ATA moved into second with a convincing 9-2 thrashing of Dandenong United, and may yet proved to be the Floridians' main danger.

Nothing was resolved in Division Three East when the match between Laminex and Dallas United failed to get off the ground — or should we say on to the ground. As a result, Laminex remains in top spot on goal difference from Essendon Tramways.

The Trammies, heroes last week when they thumped Dallas 4-0, were rabbits this time around, their fellow Trammies from the Preston depot took on the Essendon pretenders on their own turf and knocked them over 3-2.

The loss did nothing for Essendon Tramways' credibility as championship contenders, but may make a lot of others show Preston Tramways a little more respect.

In other matches in this division, Westall PIPA and Garden City picked up their first points for the season, Westall downing Kew Deaf 3-1 and the Gardeners scraping to a 1-1 draw with Taxation United.

There is not much one could say about Altona North Tarxien's performance in Division Three West, except "Bravo!". They have not dropped a point in their three matches, nor have the Tarxiens let in a goal. As a result, ANT is sitting pretty a point clear of its nearest rivals. But Kings Park Heights has thrown out a challenge with its 1-0 defeat of the much better fancied Altona Heights and St Albans Dynamo has crept back into contention with a 1-0 win over St Albans Wanderers.

This local derby was a very even affair, with the action confined principally to a relentless mid-field duel. Very few scoring chances were created by either side, and it was only in the dying minutes that the dead-lock was broken.

From about 35 metres out, Joe Jovic put an inch perfect cross into the 6-metre box, where Ivan Grgas rose high above his Wanderers' marker to head the bal home. It was Grgas' fifth goal of the season, and guess how many St Albans Dynamo has scored? You're right, five. This lack of supportive fire-power must be very worrying to the Dynamo hierarchy as it plans its campaign for the Three West championships.

There is not much credit to be gained from guessing the leader in Division Four.

Sunshine Macedonia started with a bang and has become more explosive since. Already it has a clear points and goal difference break on its nearest rival.

Although languishing mid- and lower-table, we still fancy Endeavour United and Ford Falcons as their greatest dangers. "But what about me?" cries Alexander the Great. "And me," says Epping Thistle.

Next week we turn to the opening campaign of the Mansfield Bunney League Cup. This is a qualifying round in which only six matches will be played. All matches will kick off at 10 am.

Endeavour United will be at home to Sunshine United. We expect the Timorese to have an edge in skill and experience on their Fijian visitors, and to come out winners.

●●●●●●●●●●

Northern Timorese, meanwhile, will be hosts to Elwood United.

At their last encounter, Northern Timorese emerged a 3-2 winner, but we expect Elwood United to turn the tables this time around.

The exciting Harambee takes on StAlbans Wanderers. Despite what could be a dour struggle, we expect Harambee to have the better of it.

Kings Park Heights versus Keeley Kings is anyone's guess. A lot depends on how well the double K's travel. Perhaps a home-ground advantage will give Kings Park Heights the edge.

Salesian Old Boys will be at home to Cretan Athletic, and would appear to be out of their depth. Still, it is early in the morning and the Cretans may not be fully awake by then?

The final match sees Fourth Division Eltham & Diamond Valley playing host to SB Spurs. Strictly on seniority, the Spurs should have it.

Meanwhile, all eyes are beginning to turn to Bendigo. There will be a special training session for all representative squad hopefuls on the ANZ Band ground, Aughtie Drive, Albert Park (next door to Middle Park Stadium) on Sunday at 2pm.

Every player who thinks he might have what it takes is invited to attend.

half when we looked like getting on top," he said, "Springvale have him to thank for the point."

Culina said he felt frustrated in the extreme as Springvale spread its defence across the ground playing for that away point.

"They ('Vale) had only one man up front and six at the back," says Culina "it's effective, but it's pretty boring to watch and of course you can't win games that way."

'PINES ON THE MEND

Frankston Pines' draw with Thomastown was its third game without defeat and manager Danny McMinimee says he's feeling very optimistic now.

He isn't too pleased, however that Ian Stirton was sent off last week, especially as it appears that coach Joe Sweeney will be a long time recovering from a bad knee injury.

His doctor has ordered him not to consider playing for at least six months, so if he recovers it will be next season for Joe.

But the news isn't all bad down Monterey way.

Spanish import Juan Gavilan is back and will probably play against St Albans on Saturday.

Also, McMinimee is thrilled with the form of former Victorian Under 15's forward Nick Radecki who scored the equaliser on Sunday.

"He's not very big" says McMinimee "but he coped well against two big experienced defenders in Andy Higgins and Dean Hennessy.

St Albans could also have new import Jure Eres on display against Pines too.

"Eirs is a right-sided forward," says Culina.

"He's from Neretva in the Croatian League and he could fill the billnicely."

FALCONS MUST IMPROVE

Morwell Falcons, despite their energetic close-season recruiting, have been disappointing over the last four weeks and have slipped out of the frame.

On Saturday night they allowed Juventus to gain the ascendancy in the first half and although they improved in the second term, it was too late.

It was very much a tale of two halves, with Manfred Schaefer happy with his team's first half performance, then berating them for "going to sleep" in the second.

On the other hand, Falcons, aided no doubt by one of those famous McLachlan half-time blasts hammered away after half-time, but could make no impression.

Falcons had both Harry Bingham and Roy Walsh out injured, but Jimmy Nelson was back from susension and Billy Wright back from New Zealand duty.

This weekend's games, probable winners in capitals:

SATURDAY: Altona Gate v CROYDON CITY at Paisley Reserve, MORWELL FALCONS v Bulleen at North Crinigan Reserve, St Albans v Frankston Pines (draw) at Churchill Reserve.

SUNDAY: JUVENTUS v Ringwood at Olympic Park, 4pm KO, Maribyrning v BOX HILL at Raleigh Reserve, Green Gully v Thomastown (draw) at Gully Reserve, Springvale City v NORTHCOTE CITY at Ross Reserve, Fawkner v CAULFIELD CITY at Smith Reserve.

Forest revives after tragedy

LONDON: Nottingham Forest striker Lee Chapman put into words what most English soccer professionals must have felt on Saturday as they played for the first time since the Hillsborough disaster which claimed 95 lives.

"It was very difficult to play," he said after Forest's 4-3 win at Middlesbrough.

"There was a very silent build-up and an eerie atmosphere before the game.

"But playing again took our minds off the events of the last week. The best thing for us after Hillsborough was to play football."

NOTTINGHAM Forest – a week ago involved in the fateful FA Cup tie in Sheffield – retained its slim hopes of catching English first division pacemakers Arsenal and Liverpool by coming from behind to beat Middlesbrough 4-3 on Saturday.

But third-placed Norwich, beaten by Everton in its FA Cup semi-final last week, experienced another disappointing afternoon when it squandered a two-goal lead to draw 2-2 at home with Aston Villa.

All of Saturday's league matches kicked of at 3.06pm local time – the time at which last Saturday's FA Cup semi-final between Liverpool and Forest at Hillsborough was halted by Britain's biggest sporting tragedy when 95 fans were crushed to death.

Before the kick-offs, players stood in silence for a minute in memory of the victims.

Forest's win lifted it to 57 points, nine behind leader Arsenal and six adrift of defending champion Liverpool.

The Arsenal-Liverpool top-of-the-table clash, due to have been played has been postponed.

Norwich, whose bid for the championship has faltered in the past few weeks, has 58 points.

The team looked certain to put an end to its dismal run when it scored twice in a minute through Dean Coney and Andy Townsend early in the second half against Aston Villa. But goals from Ian Olney and Alan McInally, his 22nd of the season, gave Villa a share of the spoils.

Forest fell a goal behind to Stuart Ripley after 21 minutes, but was quickly level through England midfielder Neil Webb. Forest assumed complete control once Lee Chapman had scored the first of his two goals shortly before half-time, with Garry Parker the other Forest marksman.

Late goals by Bernie Slaven and Peter Davenport were more than Middlesbrough deserved. A last-minute goal by Paul Walsh, his second of the match, completed Tottenham's home league program on a winning note when it beat Everton 2-1. Neil McDonald scored for the FA Cup finalists in the 83rd minute.

Charlton, perennial relegation candidate, improved its chances of again escaping the drop by beating Manchester United 1-0 with a seventh minute penalty by Mark Reid, and fellow London club West Ham sparked new life into its fast-fading hopes of staying in the first division with a 3-0 drubbing of Millwall.

The much needed win for the bottom club, which scored all of its goals in a 25-minute spell in the first half, was only its second at home in 18 league matches. But West Ham still has a mountain to climb. It is four points adrift of Newcastle and six below Luton, the two clubs immediately above who drew 0-0 at Newcastle.

Chelsea made sure of returning to the first division after just one season's absence when it beat Leeds 1-0 at home, with John Bumstead scoring the all-important goal after 54 minutes.
